DORA MAXWELL SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AWARD

Energize Credit Union, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma is proud to announce it has been awarded second place by the Credit Union National Association (CUNA) for the Dora Maxwell Social Responsibility Award.

CUNA created the Dora Maxwell Social Responsibility Award to encourage and honor credit union and chapter involvement in community projects and activities. Dora Maxwell was a community activist who committed her life to credit union development, to her community, and to serving the underserved.

Energize received recognition for its volunteer contributions to OAEC's Energy Trails Program. Oklahoma Association of Electric Coop (OAEC), in coordination with its National Association NRECA, has been sending Oklahoma Electric Coop Linemen to electrify Central & South American rural villages without power in Bolivia and Guatemala. OAEC has split 3 of the 4 annual projects with Electric Coops from another State. From 2016 to 2019, the 4 Projects established 578 first-time connections of electric service with the help of 35 Oklahoma Electric Coop volunteers from 20 of the 30 Oklahoma Electric Cooperatives.

5-STAR ENERGIZE CREDIT UNION WHERE MEMBERS MAKE GREAT OWNERS

Energize Credit Union, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma is proud to announce it has earned Bauer Financial's 5-Star Superior rating for strength and security, proof positive that you can serve your members and perform well at the same time.

BAUERFINANCIAL INC., Coral Gables, Florida, the nation's credit union and bank rating firm, has been evaluating and rating credit unions since 1983. A 5-Star Superior rating indicates that Energize Credit Union is one of the strongest in the nation, excelling in areas of capital, loan quality, profitability and more.

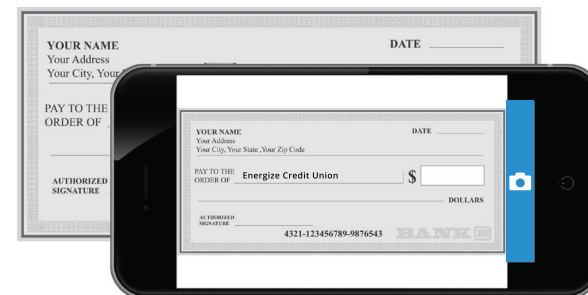

"This rating is impressive in the best of times," notes Karen Dorway, president of the research firm. "But I can't overstate the strength and prudence that Energize Credit Union has exhibited over the past years that got it to this point. And as we begin 2021, we have every reason to believe that Energize Credit Union will continue to thrive."
